Catarrh Cannot be Cured

with LOCAL APPLICATIONS, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarrh is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Cure is not a quick medicine. It was prescribed by one of the best physicians in this country for years and is a regular prescription. It is composed of the best tonics known, combined with the best blood purifiers, acting directly on the mucous surfaces. The perfect combination of the two ingredients is what produces such wonderful results in curing catarrh. Send for testimonials, free.

Card of Thanks

To those loyal, undaunted friends who so superbly and steadfastly followed my leadership, fought faithfully and true, all through the Primary—December 6th, endeavoring to assist me to obtain the endorsement of Hon. L. P. Padgett for the office of Postmaster, I heartily thank you and deeply appreciate every effort exerted in my behalf. Defeated by such a small margin I feel almost victorious—glad and happy over your unswerving friendship and support.

To the winner—I ask that you, freely and willingly, give your unqualified endorsement as I shall do.

Here's to "Big Jim" the Postmaster—may his jolly face, his sunny, genial smile ever shine the next four years through the general delivery window.

Obituary.

Little Charlie, son of Barbara and Charlie Prince, was born June 17, 1912, and was drowned November 30, 1913, being one year, five months and thirteen days old. Little Charlie is gone, these were the sad words that reached us. Everything was done for him that could be done by hands but God took him home. Another precious bud has been transplanted to bloom in the paradise above. He will not come back to us only in our fancy but we can all go to where he is by doing our Father's will. We know he is at rest for God said suffer little children to come unto me for of such is the kingdom of heaven. May his father and mother meet him in the sun bright clime where there will be no more sad good byes. He was laid to rest at the Nelson Cemetery, the funeral services being conducted by Brother Thornton Crews. Written by his aunt, Fannie Pugh.

A Toast To The—Also Rans.

(With apologies to Brooks)

By H. D. D.

When the voting booth smokes and smothered

With the dust of tramping feet;

When the favorites and the others

Swept by in their final heat

There were plenty to toast Jim Springer

And cheer for the fortunate man;

But here's to those plucky sowers,

Hobbs, Bushy and Wisdom, who also ran

You have tested dust—'tis a tonic;

You have known defeat—it is wine;

You wait for the next become

Get from the stalling line

Go, not to the swift forever,

Is the race and the almost vain;

There is always a future leader,

In the ranks of the also rans.

Here's to you three, true and loyal,

Wherever your lot be cast;

I pledge you a bumper royal

You fellows who can fight and laugh;

Long life and the joy of battle

To these three,—the fighting clan

More power to you, boys of mettle,

Make way there! for the also rans.

And here's to you, sons of old Lawrence,

Taught by undaunted Democratic fire

To scorn defeat and deep danger for-reals

Till you win your heart's desire

Men may laugh, hate 'em forget you

But down in the Almighty's plan

As victors He may have placed you,

Whom we call—"The Also Rans."

Not Beyond Help at 87.

Sleep-disturbing bladder weakness, stiffness in joints, weak, inactive kidney action and rheumatic pains, are all evidence of kidney trouble. Mrs. Mary A. Dean, 47 E. Walnut St. Taunton, Mass., writes: "I have passed my 87th birthday, and thought I was beyond the reach of medicine, but Foley's Kidney Pills have proved most beneficial in my case."

Non-Resident Notice

O. K. Ayers

Hazel Sidinger et al.

It appearing to the clerk from the petition filed in this cause which is sworn to that the defendants, Hazel Sidinger and husband W. H. Sidinger, Berley Ayers, J. Hugh Ayers, K. Dewey Ayers, William H. Ayers, B. Beno Ayers, Bela Ayers and Olive Ayers are Non-residents of the State of Tenn., and residents of the State of Ohio so that the ordinary process of law cannot be served on them.

It is therefore ordered that publication be made for four consecutive weeks in the Lawrence Democrat a newspaper published in Lawrenceburg, Tenn., requiring said non-resident defendants to appear and answer the Judge of the County Court, at a court to be held in and for the County of Lawrence at the court house in Lawrenceburg, Tenn., on the first Monday in January 1914 being the 6th day of said month, there and then to plead answer or demurrer to said petition or the same will be taken for confessed as to them and set for hearing exparte.

This December 2, 1913.

N. B. Simms, Clerk.

Starnes & Chavis Attys. for Petitioner.

Coughs That Prevent Sleep.

These coughs are wearing and if they "hang on" can run one down physically and lower the vital resistance to disease. Mr. Rob Ferguson, 319 Pine St., Green Bay, Wis., writes: "I was greatly troubled with a bad cough that kept me awake nights. Two small bottles of Foley's Honey and Tar Compound completely cured me."

Insolvent Notice

The suggestion of insolvency having been made, all parties having claims against the estate of Ed Gant, dead are hereby notified to file same, duly authenticated, with the County Court Clerk of Lawrence County on or before the 17th day of February 1914, or same will be forever barred. All parties indebted to said estate should make prompt settlement.

This November 19, 1913.

Pleasure and Protection

"One of the best reasons why I would not be without telephone service," writes a Georgia farmer, "is the pleasure it gives my wife and the knowledge that while I am away, she has the protection that the telephone gives."

On the farm the telephone dispels loneliness and is the means of bringing help in any emergency that may arise.

If you haven't a telephone on your farm see the nearest Bell Telephone Manager or write for our free booklet and learn how little this service costs.
